LEARN ABOUT COAAA AND COLUMBUS RECREATION AND PARKS IN OTHER LANGUAGES

Did you know that the Central Ohio Area Agency on Aging (COAAA) and Columbus Recreation and Parks Department have websites that can be translated into multiple languages?

When you visit COAAA.org or ColumbusRecParks.com, you have the option to translate these pages into other languages including Spanish and Somali, the second-most and third-most languages spoken in Columbus.

The translation option for COAAA.org is near the top left corner, while the translation option for ColumbusRecParks.com is on the lower left corner. Simply select the needed language from the dropdown menus. Tell a friend!

Exploring Ohio: Field Trips with FiftyPlus

Ready to get out and experience the best this state has to offer? Join one of the many FiftyPlus trips organized by our community centers for an opportunity to connect with your home state. Whether you're a fan of theatre and art, love attending sporting events or enjoy exploring new restaurants, you'll surely find a trip you'll love.

Throughout the year, several field trips take place to encourage individuals to experience the best that Columbus and Ohio have to offer. These trips provide the perfect opportunity to discover hidden gems and popular spots. With these trips, you will always find something new to explore. Take advantage of the chance to make new friends and create lasting memories.

Some places and events our FiftyPlus residents have attended include:

- Otherworld Immersive Art Museum in Columbus
- National Air Force Museum in Dayton
- Jungle Jim's International Market in Cincinnati
- Scavenger Hunt across Columbus

If you love the idea of a field trip but need help deciding on a destination, a mystery trip could be the perfect solution for you. These trips only charge for transportation and take you to an exciting surprise location. Embarking on a surprise adventure could turn out to be your best travel yet!

Find the perfect trip and how to register in the Center News section of this newsletter. We can't wait to explore the unique charm of Ohio with you!

- Production of "West Side Story" at the La Comedia Dinner Theatre in Springsboro

CENTER NEWS

Register online for classes at ColumbusRecParks.com. If you have difficulty registering on your own, call or stop by the community center of your choice, and staff will assist you with the process of registration.

All classes are free, except where otherwise indicated. Class fees will vary according to the instructor, so be sure to check with your class instructor for details. All class schedules are subject to change.

Some important things to note:

- Registration and class size may be limited.
- Participants are asked to stay home if they are feeling sick (cough, fever, nausea, runny nose, etc.).

- Face coverings are optional for all City of Columbus employees, registered participants and visitors to City buildings. Masks may be available at the center.
- We continue to encourage social distancing – staying six feet away from others, especially around vulnerable populations.

Register for the Senior Wellness Jamboree

Join us on Friday, Oct. 4 from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. at Schiller Park for this year's edition of the Senior Wellness Jamboree!

This free event includes a fun fitness walk with different distances for every fitness level, as well as music and dancing. You can participate in classes and activities, get tips and resources for a healthy lifestyle from Columbus Recreation and Parks Department and other vendors, or enter to win prizes.

To register for this event or learn more information, visit ColumbusRecParks.com/senior-wellness-jamboree.

The Senior Wellness Jamboree is done in collaboration with the Franklin County Office on Aging and in partnership with Dedicated Senior Medical Center.
